Strategy Recap

Business Challenge

Pandora's catalog of music is U.S.-centric, which limits its appeal to users who desire global music alongside contemporary hits.

Strategy Recap

Human Insight

When my language and culture isn't reflected, I feel unseen and disconnected from Pandora.

Strategy Recap

Key Message

Pandora is where different generations and cultures meet through their love for music, by pairing timeless classics with today's hits.

Concept Statement

Music For You. By You.

You grew up surrounded by other people's music. Now, from your family's favorites to your own discoveries, your sound tells a story that crosses cultures. Powered by the Music Genome Project, Pandora learns what interests you and why and celebrates that by bringing together classic hits and today's global music, creating a space where every listener feels heard, seen, and connected.

Script #1

Open with a daughter stirring a pot on the stove while her mother chops vegetables.

MUSIC: Old song playing

Mother: Your grandmother loved this song.

Cut to the daughter going to grab her phone and starts typing

Daughter: Yeah, but wait. Listen to this.

She switches the track. The beat drops and now the same melody is remixed and plays with a more modern production.

They start laughing and dancing while cooking.

MUSIC: Transition from nostalgic classic to modern upbeat remix

VO: “The music she grew up with. The sound you’re growing into.”

END CARD: Pandora. Music For You. By You.

Script #2

Open on a man walking down a city sidewalk at night, headphones on, city lights reflecting around him.

MUSIC: Slow, emotional ballad playing

Cut to him taking a deep breath, closing his eyes briefly, letting the music wash over him.

He taps his phone on Pandora and hit “next.”

The same melody transitions into a vibrant pop remix.

He starts to walk quicker, a small smile appears, and he subtly starts nodding to the beat.

The streetlights around him proceed to get brighter as the song brightens.

MUSIC: Transition from slow ballad to an upbeat pop remix

VO: When your music grows with you.

END CARD: Pandora. Music For You. By You.

Script #3

Open on a living room. A family is sitting around after dinner, Pandora playing softly.

MUSIC: Soft jazz track

Dad: This takes me back... I could listen to this all night.

Child: Let's see what else Pandora has.

They swipe, and the next track plays a lively pop song.

The dad starts dancing while child looks embarrassed

Fade out on the entire family dancing together

MUSIC: Changes from jazz upbeat pop

VO: The songs that bring everyone together.

END CARD: Pandora. Music For You. By You.

TikTok “By You Filter”

The “By You” filter lets you drop your own face into a dynamic music-themed animation inspired by Pandora’s neon style. As your photo integrates into the design, the visuals pulse and swirl to the beat of whatever song chosen.

Beyond the Algorithm

The Music Genome Project powers Pandora's understanding of your music taste. By analyzing thousands of song characteristics, it finds tracks that align with what you love, sometimes even before you know it.

“Not just data, but discovery.”

Concept

Pandora is where generations meet through music, from timeless classics to today's hits, creating a soundtrack that is uniquely yours. Powered by the Music Genome Project, Pandora understands your tastes at a deeper level, coming up with songs you love and songs you didn't know you would.

“Music for you, by you.”

“Timeless music, perfectly yours.”
